

EMPLOYEE HR POLICY HANDBOOK

1. LEAVE POLICY

Employees are entitled to 18 days of paid annual leave per calendar year, accrued monthly at 1.5 days per month. Sick leave is provided separately at 12 days per year and does not require advance notice, though a medical certificate is required for sick leave exceeding 3 consecutive days. Casual leave of 6 days per year may be used for personal emergencies with at least 1 day of prior notice where possible. Unused annual leave can be carried forward up to a maximum of 15 days into the next calendar year; beyond that, it lapses. Maternity leave is provided for 26 weeks as per company policy, and paternity leave is provided for 2 weeks. All leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal and approved by the reporting manager at least 2 working days in advance, except for sick leave.

2. WORK HOURS AND ATTENDANCE

Standard work hours are 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday through Friday, with a 1-hour lunch break. Employees are expected to log a minimum of 8 working hours per day. The company follows a hybrid work model, requiring employees to be present in the office at least 3 days per week, with the remaining days eligible for remote work subject to manager approval. Flexible start times between 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM are permitted as long as total daily hours are met. Repeated unexcused absences may result in disciplinary action as outlined in the Code of Conduct section.

3. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

All full-time employees are eligible for group health insurance covering the employee, spouse, and up to 2 dependent children, with coverage up to 5 lakh rupees per year. Dental and vision coverage are included as add-ons at no additional cost to the employee. The company also provides a wellness allowance of 5000 rupees per quarter, which can be used for gym memberships, mental health counseling, or fitness programs. Employees become eligible for benefits from day one of employment, with no waiting period. Life insurance coverage equal to 3 times the annual salary is provided at no cost.

4. REMOTE WORK POLICY

Employees working remotely must ensure a stable internet connection and be available during core business hours from 11 AM to 4 PM for meetings and collaboration. Remote work equipment, including a laptop and one-time setup allowance of 10000 rupees, is provided to employees who are approved for extended remote work arrangements. Remote employees are expected to attend all-hands meetings virtually and are eligible for the same benefits as in-office employees. Requests for full-time remote work beyond the standard hybrid model must be approved by both the reporting manager and HR.

5. CODE OF CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINARY POLICY

Employees are expected to maintain professionalism, respect diversity, and avoid conflicts of interest. Harassment of any kind is strictly prohibited and can be reported confidentially through the HR ethics hotline. Violations of company policy may result in a verbal warning, written warning, or termination depending on severity, following a structured escalation process. All employees must complete mandatory compliance and ethics training annually.

6. RESIGNATION AND NOTICE PERIOD

Employees who wish to resign must provide a minimum of 30 days written notice to their reporting manager and HR. During the notice period, employees are required to complete a knowledge transfer with their team. Full and final settlement, including any pending reimbursements and leave encashment, is processed within 45 days of the last working day. Leave encashment is calculated based on unused annual leave balance at the basic salary rate.
